

been come out. We also have his mobile number which we have used and he has always got back to us if he wasn't available. He also enabled us to go and see someone who already had the panels and we found that very reassuring. Also a very nice man to have in the house as was the engineer & the electricians.

Yours faithfully

Dear Sir,

We now have our Solar Panels up and running & must say we were impressed with your service. Mathew Ryde was very clear and concise with the details and checked our electricity use etc. and was very patient and kind when explaining things. He made us aware that it was a great deal of money and pointed out all the advantages of using our money in this way. So far all his figures have
